Life-Span Developmental Approach to Assessing Childhood Sexualized Assault (CSA)
Rosemary Barnes & Nina Josefowitz
Ontario Psychological Association Conference, Toronto, Canada, February 20, 2015

REFERENCES

Forensic Assessment

Expert Assessment of CSA

Language in judicial situations involving assault

Developmental Psychopathology, Risk, and Resilience

Attachment

Risk Factors Associated with CSA or Trauma

Resilience Factors Associated with CSA or Trauma

General Studies, Reviews, Overviews, and Meta-Analyses of CSA Impacts

Impacts of CSA: Impaired Child/Adolescent Attachment or Development

Impacts of CSA: Mental Disorders

CSA and Substance Abuse

Impacts of CSA: Behavioural difficulties (e.g. self-harm, anger problems)

Impacts of CSA: Relationships

Impacts of CSA: Sexual Function

Impacts of CSA: Physical, dental health

Impacts of CSA: Neurological and Intellectual Function

Impacts of CSA: Education

Impacts of CSA: Employment, Occupational Attainment, Income

CSA and Risks of Re-Victimization

Impact of Multiple Forms of Maltreatment

CSA, Trauma, and Later Stress Sensitivity

Disclosure of Sexualized Assault

Institutional Betrayal and CSA in Specific Situations

Evaluating Response Validity in Interviews and Testing

Recovered Memory

