

Job Summary

We're expanding our practice and looking for a Child Clinical Psychologist who is passionate about helping children and teens. Matheson Psychology provides psychological services and assessments for children, teens and families on a wide range of issues including learning challenges and exceptionalities, divorce, depression, anxiety, ADHD, behavioural challenges, bullying, trauma and social withdrawal. Please visit www.mathesonpsychology.com for more information about our practice.

We offer a competitive salary & benefits commensurate with experience.

Thank you for your interest.

Dr. Matheson

Responsibilities and Duties:

- Effective case management
- Attend regular clinical team meetings
- Assess the needs of the child and family and develop a treatment plan to address these concerns
- Collaborate with other professionals (eg schools, physicians)
- Meet with community partners

Qualifications and Skills

- Ph.D.in clinical psychology from accredited university or equivalent
- Licensed for clinical practice (autonomously or with supervision) in the Province of Ontario
- Two (2) years of experience providing psychotherapy (incl internships).
- One (1) year post-doctoral clinical and clinical supervisory experience. Willing to provide supervision if appropriate.
- Available for full time or part time, flexible hours.
- Solid theoretical foundation and knowledge in evidence based practice with children and families
- A history of building strong relationships with clients and community partners
- The ability to identify and understand complex needs of individuals and children
- Proficiency in conducting psychological, educational and learning assessments
- The ability to work independently with children, parents and families
- The ability to collaborate with schools, physicians and other professionals

Benefits

Benefit packages available

Job Types: Full-time, Part-time