

Employment Opportunities at Burlington Psychological and Counselling Services (BPCS)

Burlington Psychological and Counselling Services is looking for skilled and enthusiastic clinicians to join our busy and thriving practice.

BPCS is a well-established private practice located in central Burlington. We have a wonderful team of highly skilled Psychologists and service a wide-range of populations (e.g., children, teens, adults, families, couples) and clinical needs (e.g., clinical, counselling, health, rehabilitation, psychoeducational assessments). We pride ourselves on our reputation for providing strong evidenced-based care and have well-developed relationships with referral sources and the community.

We are currently seeking Clinical Psychologists for both our Child and Adult services.

Qualifications:

- Doctoral level degree in psychology
- Currently registered or eligible for registration with the College of Psychologists of Ontario (supervision is available for candidates seeking registration with CPO)
- Demonstrated competence in the provision of evidenced-based assessment and treatment
- Work primarily from a CBT orientation, while also being familiar with other modalities of treatment (e.g., mindfulness and acceptance-based therapies)
- Solid experience working with mood and anxiety disorders
- Excellent oral and written communication skills
- Excellent interpersonal skills and the ability to work in a dynamic team environment
- Training and experience incorporating mindfulness and acceptance and commitment therapy into treatment would be considered an asset

Clinic Benefits:

- We offer VERY attractive remuneration
- We are able to offer flexible working hours, from part-time (1-2 days/week, daytime, evenings, weekends) to full time
- We typically have a waiting list – as such a new clinician's schedule can be filled quickly
- The opportunity exists for supervision in specific practice areas including MVA, WSIB, medical legal work, as well as psychoeducational assessments
- We have a wonderful team of Psychologists who are able to provide peer support
- The majority of our Psychologists have remained with the practice for many years
- We have a fun, upbeat, close-knit and dynamic work environment
- Our invaluable Office Coordinators are able to provide administrative support, including assistance with scheduling of appointments, processing payments, fielding phone calls
- Our Psychologists have access to shared test materials and resources
- We have an attractive and well-appointed office-space that is close to major highways and is easily accessible by public transportation.
- Burlington has been rated Canada's #1 mid size city to live in for 2 years running
- We offer financial support for continuing education opportunities

If you are interested in joining our team, please send your CV to Dr. Kevin Jones at kjones@burlingtonpcs.com.

Please feel free to pass this along to anyone in your circle of contacts who might be interested in one of these positions.
