

Adolescent Mental Health Services

Requires a

Consultant in Special Education and Psychology

Full or Part Time -negotiable

Responsibilities:

- To review professional assessments and educational reports to create a profile of students' strengths and needs, recommended strategies for student success and to share this information with multi-disciplinary teams.
- To work collaboratively with Maryvale Transition Team for planning and programming student admissions to Maryvale and discharges to community schools.
- To consult and collaborate as requested with therapists, child and youth workers and management

Qualifications:

- Masters in Education with Specialist in Special Education or a Masters in Psychology
- Several years of experience with children and youth experiencing mental health issues and special needs
- Consulting skills with mental health clinicians and parents

What We Offer

- Competitive Salary and Benefits
- Negotiable hours respecting the applicant's needs and Maryvale's needs

Please apply to Connie Martin, Director, at cmartin@maryvale.ca