

Wherever you camp, we've got you covered

Tranquil lakeside retreats. Remote woodland parks. Inner-city sanctuaries. No matter where you find your outdoor escape, recreational vehicle insurance from Co-operators gives you the protection you need to relax as you roam.

What's covered on and off site?

Our coverage is tailored to the distinct risks of non-motorized vehicles that are designed to be towed by other vehicles. Types include, but are not limited to, travel hardtop and soft-top tent trailers, and campers. We protect you through:

- Third-Party Liability to cover your obligations for causing injuries or property damage.
- Accident Benefits to provide medical-expense and loss-of-income payments, regardless of who was at fault in a collision.
- Uninsured Auto to cover your expenses if you're injured by a fleeing or uninsured motorist.
- Direct Compensation Property Damage to compensate you for damages to your trailer or camper for which you are not at fault.
- Comprehensive coverage to protect against non-collision-related losses to your trailer, like from theft, hail or flying objects.
- Collision coverage to repair or replace your recreational vehicle if it is damaged in a collision.
